"FOLLIES OF PLEASURE" OLYMPIC'S BURLESQUE

"Follies of Pleasure" will be the attraction at the Olympic Theatre.

The chief feature is a musical burlesque called "Up and Down Broadway." Among others in the company are Tom McKenna, Clyde J. Gates, Charlotte Worth, Violet Hillson, Larry Larrives and Billy Shuler. His soloists the concert programme will have Kund Dalgard, violinist, and Nadine Legot, soprano.

"The Cinderella Man" has been made into a film play that will be shown at the Strand Theatre, with Mae Marsh as the star. Victor Moore will appear in his latest comedy, "The Instalment Plan." Scene in Turkey, a chapter from "The Living Book of Nature," and the Strand Topical Review will be additional features. For his soloists the concert programme will have Kund Dalgard, violinist, and Nadine Legot, soprano.

"RUSSIAN ART FILMS AT 81ST STREET THEATRE"

For the first half of the week the Eighty-first Street Theatre will have the Russian Art Films, showing the Moscow Art Theatre players in "The Painted Doll." On Thursday the bill will change to "The Zeppelin's Last Raid," a spectacular photo-play. There will also be a vaudeville bill.
